#4, Worldwide Web.

1. According to the Bible, the day is coming when the Antichrist will be able to prevent every man, woman and child on earth from carrying out any financial or commercial transaction if they refuse his mark.

Revelation 13:16 And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead, 17 and he provides that no one should be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

2. For thousands of years, the idea that one person could prevent people all over the world from buying or selling was impossible. In fact this prophecy was laughed at by unbelievers for hundreds of years. How could this be possible?

3. However, because of the worldwide web, this is now possible. Technology now exists for Antichrist to enslave the peoples of the earth. Through the web, he is now able to prevent every man, woman and child on earth from carrying out any financial or commercial transaction if they refuse his mark. Again, the technology exists that enables the Antichrist to control all financial transactions everywhere in the world for every person on the planet.
4. The Internet provides millions of individuals and businesses with the ability to link into numerous databases virtually anywhere in the world. Individuals can now do all of their shopping in cyberspace. Businesses can quickly do credit checks on a client or telemarketing. Thanks to teleconferencing, people can also hold business meetings with clients anywhere in the world without having to leave their offices.
5. Police forces and government investigative agencies are now able to tap into each other's crime databases across national or international borders. The FBI's National Crime Information Center holds scores of millions of records.
6. The growing trend is for whole communities or states to wire together their banks, businesses, libraries, schools, and the like into one network. While the United States has made the most progress in becoming linked together. The global electronic village is truly becoming a reality. In fact, what the world is essentially becoming in these last days is one massive computer with a plethora of links.
7. Large corporations no longer need to manage their accounting books manually. Computer software programs easily handle the work of 40-50 accountants and bookkeepers. Virtually all information, personal and financial, is available at the touch of fingertips.
8. Every time we log on to the Internet, send a fax, make a purchase with a credit card, rent a video, or listen to a Bible class online, we leave behind information about our lives; this is known as "data shadow." Our lives to a great extent are an open book to anyone who cared to do a search on us on the Internet. As a matter of fact, some like reporters of the Ottawa Citizen, have gathered information on individuals and created psychological profiles to prove how easy this is. There is a tremendous amount of information on our personal lives which is easily accessible by the government. This information would include text messages from our electronic gadgets.
9. The possession of such personal information on the Internet will open the door to George Orwell's Big Brother control. You can be sure that when the Antichrist comes, he will have access and control of this information.
10. The Internet is enabling the various nations of the world to become in effect borderless. It will make it possible for a one-world government.

11. The Internet is moving the world to a “less cash” society. Money is increasingly nothing more than electronic bits of information that are passed back and forth through cyberspace. Credit cards with chips of information are increasingly replacing dollars and loose change. As long as cash is around the Antichrist is unable to have complete control of the buying and selling of every man, women, and child on the planet.
12. God’s Word forewarns that the Antichrist will implement a system using a mark by which he will be able to control all consumer transactions,

Revelation 13:16 And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free men and the slaves, to be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead, 17 and he provides that no one should be able to buy or to sell, except the one who has the mark, either the name of the beast or the number of his name.

13. Chips are currently being implanted in the human body to send and receive radio signals (RDIF). Although Wikipedia is not a reliable source, the article on RDIF does a fair job of describing chip implantation and includes documentation for further study, see http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Microchip\_implant\_%28human%29.

14. Biblical prophecy made around 95 A.D. demonstrates once again that Jesus Christ controls history. Today is as present to God as was the time long before computers and chips. In the next daily doctrine, I will discuss the mark in more detail. The bottom line is that it will be a spiritual decision and not simply a decision a person made for pure economic or health reasons (health information). Let’s not be superstitious about 666. People who take the 666 will know exactly what they are doing. No need to fear if your credit card has 666 on it. As matter of fact, one of my credit cards has 666 as the CCC number on the back. There is nothing magical or evil about the number as such. It all has to do with A SPIRITUAL DECISION (Rev. 14:9-11).

Safe and Sound in Him,
