

Review of Bible Class (2-27-13)

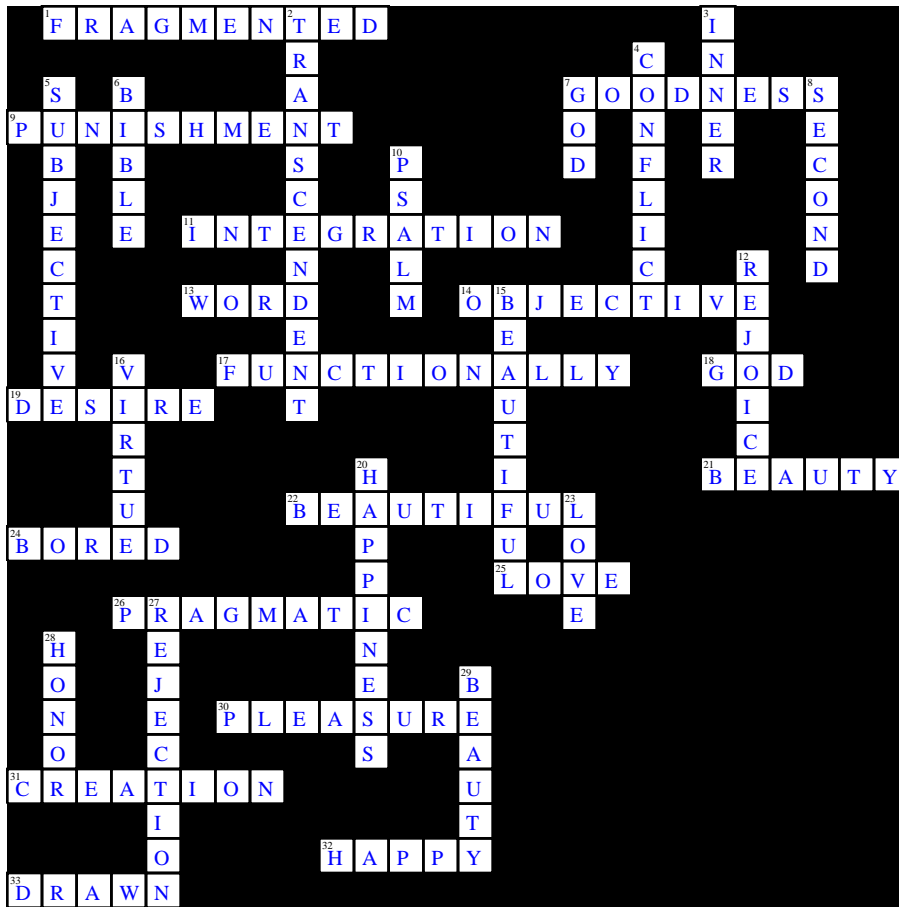

Across

- 1 A person who lives in deceit is a ___ person.
- 7 For the Ancients, happiness was tied to inner ___ of the soul.
- 9 The problem of guilt includes an expectation of ___ from God, which precludes one from moving closer to Him.
- 11 Tests in life are designed to bring ___ around the good (2nd person relationship with God).
- 13 Loss of eyes for the beauty of God, results in being bored with God and His ___.
- 14 The Ancients, Christ, and writers of the New Testament had an ___ view of happiness.
- 17 One reason Christians do not see the beauty of God is because they are only ___ oriented to Him.
- 18 ___ is the Author of the beautiful modes of literature in the Bible.
- 19 A believer who does not see the beauty of God will be limited in his love and ___ for Him.
- 21 Christ's ___ is the only thing that could have given Mary Magdalene the desire to anoint Him in the face of harsh disapproval of all around her.
- 22 Jesus said that what Mary did in anointing Him was a ___ deed. Others thought the deed was a waste.
- 24 The loss of beauty and wonder has resulted in man becoming ___ with life.
- 25 Mary Magdalene gave all that she had because of her ___ for Christ.
- 26 The best that a believer can do apart from seeing the beauty of God is follow Him for ___ reasons.
- 30 The loss of capacity for beauty results in the loss of ___ in life.
- 31 Deism cuts a person off from the realities of God's beauty in ___.
- 32 According to the Ancients, it was not possible for the unjust to be truly ___.
- 33 The modern mindset has destroyed man's capacity for transcendent beauty, and this has a major impact on the believer's capacity to see God's beauty in creation, in the Bible, and be powerfully ___ to Him in love.

Down

- 2 Modern man has lost capacity for ___ beauty.
- 3 Christ taught that true happiness of soul was an ___ state resulting from quality of the soul, not dependent upon outward circumstances.
- 4 Fragmentation in the soul takes place when a person's higher order desires are in ___ with lower order desires.
- 5 Modern man has a ___ view of happiness.
- 6 Most Christians see happiness in terms of stuff or circumstances in contrast to the views of the Ancients, Christ, and the ___.
- 7 With Esse metaphysics, all of life comes alive with the beauty of ___.
- 8 The key reason Paul was such a great follower of Christ is because he was integrated in his first and ___ order desires.
- 10 When Christ speaks of Nathanael as a person in whom there is no deceit, what book in the Old Testament describes such a person? (___ 32)
- 12 While Paul was in prison, he shouted ___ in the Lord.
- 15 While the King James Version Bible is not always the most accurate, it is more ___ than modern translations which are often incorrect and ugly.
- 16 The Ancients tied true happiness to ___.
- 20 Modern man has a very superficial view of ___ that is tied to circumstances of life.
- 23 In the Bible, true beauty is connected to ___ (cf. Song of Solomon).
- 27 The problem of shame includes an expectation of ___ from God, which precludes one from moving closer to Him.
- 28 The problem of shame can only be solved by giving the person ___.
- 29 John 1:14 speaks of believers beholding the ___ of God in Christ.

Review of Bible Class (2-27-13)

Across

- 1 A person who lives in deceit is a ___ person.
- 7 For the Ancients, happiness was tied to inner ___ of the soul.
- 9 The problem of guilt includes an expectation of ___ from God, which precludes one from moving closer to Him.
- 11 Tests in life are designed to bring ___ around the good (2nd person relationship with God).
- 13 Loss of eyes for the beauty of God, results in being bored with God and His ___.
- 14 The Ancients, Christ, and writers of the New Testament had an ___ view of happiness.
- 17 One reason Christians do not see the beauty of God is because they are only ___ oriented to Him.
- 18 ___ is the Author of the beautiful modes of literature in the Bible.
- 19 A believer who does not see the beauty of God will be limited in his love and ___ for Him.
- 21 Christ's ___ is the only thing that could have given Mary Magdalene the desire to anoint Him in the face of harsh disapproval of all around her.
- 22 Jesus said that what Mary did in anointing Him was a ___ deed. Others thought the deed was a waste.
- 24 The loss of beauty and wonder has resulted in man becoming ___ with life.
- 25 Mary Magdalene gave all that she had because of her ___ for Christ.
- 26 The best that a believer can do apart from seeing the beauty of God is follow Him for ___ reasons.
- 30 The loss of capacity for beauty results in the loss of ___ in life.
- 31 Deism cuts a person off from the realities of God's beauty in ___.
- 32 According to the Ancients, it was not possible for the unjust to be truly ___.
- 33 The modern mindset has destroyed man's capacity for transcendent beauty, and this has a major impact on the believer's capacity to see God's beauty in creation, in the Bible, and be powerfully ___ to Him in love.

Down

- 2 Modern man has lost capacity for ___ beauty.
- 3 Christ taught that true happiness of soul was an ___ state resulting from quality of the soul, not dependent upon outward circumstances.
- 4 Fragmentation in the soul takes place when a person's higher order desires are in ___ with lower order desires.
- 5 Modern man has a ___ view of happiness.
- 6 Most Christians see happiness in terms of stuff or circumstances in contrast to the views of the Ancients, Christ, and the ___.
- 7 With Esse metaphysics, all of life comes alive with the beauty of ___.
- 8 The key reason Paul was such a great follower of Christ is because he was integrated in his first and ___ order desires.
- 10 When Christ speaks of Nathanael as a person in whom there is no deceit, what book in the Old Testament describes such a person? (___ 32)
- 12 While Paul was in prison, he shouted ___ in the Lord.
- 15 While the King James Version Bible is not always the most accurate, it is more ___ than modern translations which are often incorrect and ugly.
- 16 The Ancients tied true happiness to ___.
- 20 Modern man has a very superficial view of ___ that is tied to circumstances of life.
- 23 In the Bible, true beauty is connected to ___ (cf. Song of Solomon).
- 27 The problem of shame includes an expectation of ___ from God, which precludes one from moving closer to Him.
- 28 The problem of shame can only be solved by giving the person ___.
- 29 John 1:14 speaks of believers beholding the ___ of God in Christ.