

Review of Bible Class (3-6-13)

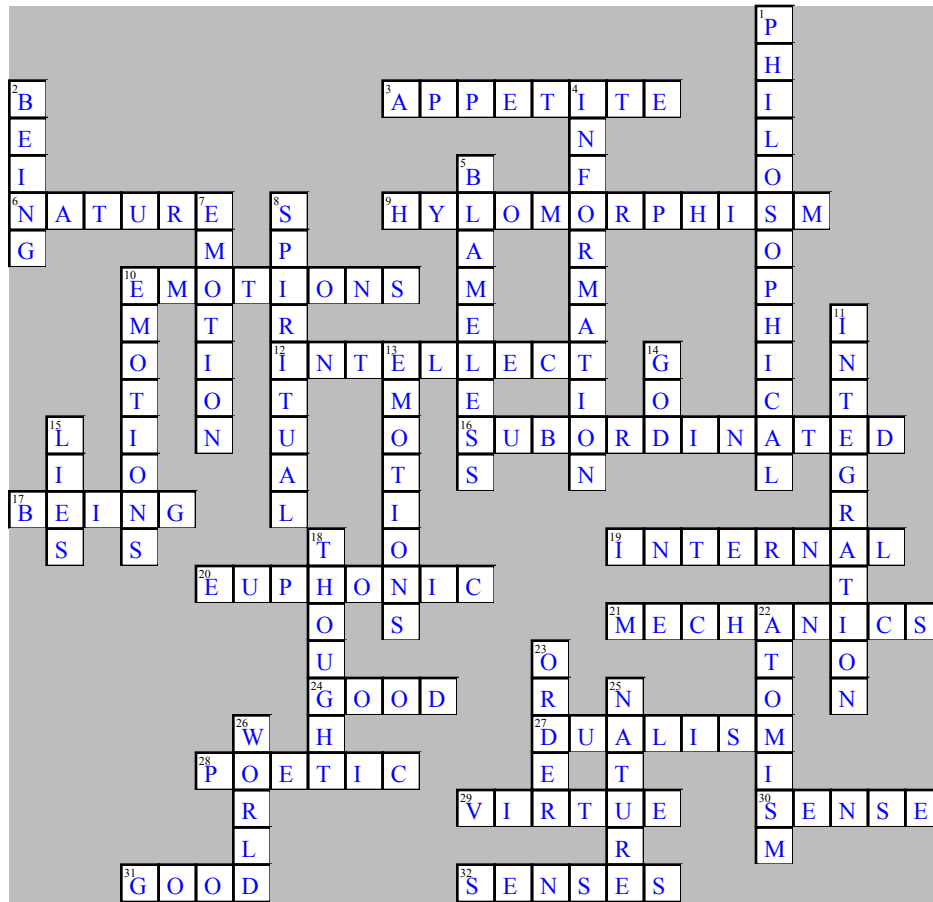

Across

- 3 All one has to do to arouse a person's emotions is to place some "good" before one's sense ____.
- 6 Without philosophical realism, the doctrinal believer does not understand the true ____ of God (as Esse) or man.
- 9 The biblical view of the nature of man.
- 10 Both animals and man have ____.
- 12 Conscience is just another name for man's ____ viewed from 2nd order cogitation.
- 16 Emotions are to be ____ to the mind.
- 17 To build an indubitable foundation in anything one must always begin with ____.
- 19 Man possesses both external and ____ senses.
- 20 Poetry is a ____ form of beauty.
- 21 The weakness in the philosophical realism movement is in understanding the ____ of the spiritual life.
- 24 We are to have a perfectly ____ conscience before God (Acts 23:1).
- 27 The nature of man as taught by Plato, Hinduism, and Descartes.
- 28 God used ____ beauty to enable Job to see God in all things and love Him.
- 29 The Ancient view of happiness was that it was a state in man tied to what?
- 30 Emotion is the movement of ____ appetite.
- 31 All living things act and move toward some ____.
- 32 Emotions are elicited by the five ____.

Down

- 1 The weakness in the doctrinal movement is in ____ realism.
- 2 To build philosophy of human nature requires starting with ____.
- 4 Materialism cannot account for ____ (logos) in all things.
- 5 We are to maintain a ____ conscience before God and man (Acts 24:16).
- 7 This word is from the Latin and means "to move."
- 8 The biblical view is that true happiness is related to a person's ____ state.
- 10 ____ were created by God and therefore are very important.
- 11 The fact that there was no deceit in Nathanael indicated ____ of 1st and 2nd order wills.
- 13 Part of the God's provision in animals and man to aid them in moving toward some good or away from some evil.
- 14 When emotions are not controlled they can become man's ____ (Philip. 3:19).
- 15 Nathanael shows that it is not true that everyone ____ or lives a lie.
- 18 The key in controlling emotions is in the ____ life.
- 22 The nature of man as taught by Democritus and Darwin.
- 23 To become a better (more virtuous) person requires using your second ____ will to examine your first order will and volition.
- 25 Philosophy of ____ deals with the basic structure of man (his 17 internal and external capacities).
- 26 Emotions help man interact with the ____ in which he lives.

Review of Bible Class (3-6-13)

Across

- 3 All one has to do to arouse a person's emotions is to place some "good" before one's sense ____.
- 6 Without philosophical realism, the doctrinal believer does not understand the true ____ of God (as Esse) or man.
- 9 The biblical view of the nature of man.
- 10 Both animals and man have ____.
- 12 Conscience is just another name for man's ____ viewed from 2nd order cogitation.
- 16 Emotions are to be ____ to the mind.
- 17 To build an indubitable foundation in anything one must always begin with ____.
- 19 Man possesses both external and ____ senses.
- 20 Poetry is a ____ form of beauty.
- 21 The weakness in the philosophical realism movement is in understanding the ____ of the spiritual life.
- 24 We are to have a perfectly ____ conscience before God (Acts 23:1).
- 27 The nature of man as taught by Plato, Hinduism, and Descartes.
- 28 God used ____ beauty to enable Job to see God in all things and love Him.
- 29 The Ancient view of happiness was that it was a state in man tied to what?
- 30 Emotion is the movement of ____ appetite.
- 31 All living things act and move toward some ____.
- 32 Emotions are elicited by the five ____.

Down

- 1 The weakness in the doctrinal movement is in ____ realism.
- 2 To build philosophy of human nature requires starting with ____.
- 4 Materialism cannot account for ____ (logos) in all things.
- 5 We are to maintain a ____ conscience before God and man (Acts 24:16).
- 7 This word is from the Latin and means "to move."
- 8 The biblical view is that true happiness is related to a person's ____ state.
- 10 ____ were created by God and therefore are very important.
- 11 The fact that there was no deceit in Nathanael indicated ____ of 1st and 2nd order wills.
- 13 Part of the God's provision in animals and man to aid them in moving toward some good or away from some evil.
- 14 When emotions are not controlled they can become man's ____ (Philip. 3:19).
- 15 Nathanael shows that it is not true that everyone ____ or lives a lie.
- 18 The key in controlling emotions is in the ____ life.
- 22 The nature of man as taught by Democritus and Darwin.
- 23 To become a better (more virtuous) person requires using your second ____ will to examine your first order will and volition.
- 25 Philosophy of ____ deals with the basic structure of man (his 17 internal and external capacities).
- 26 Emotions help man interact with the ____ in which he lives.