

Review of Bible Class (3-10-13)

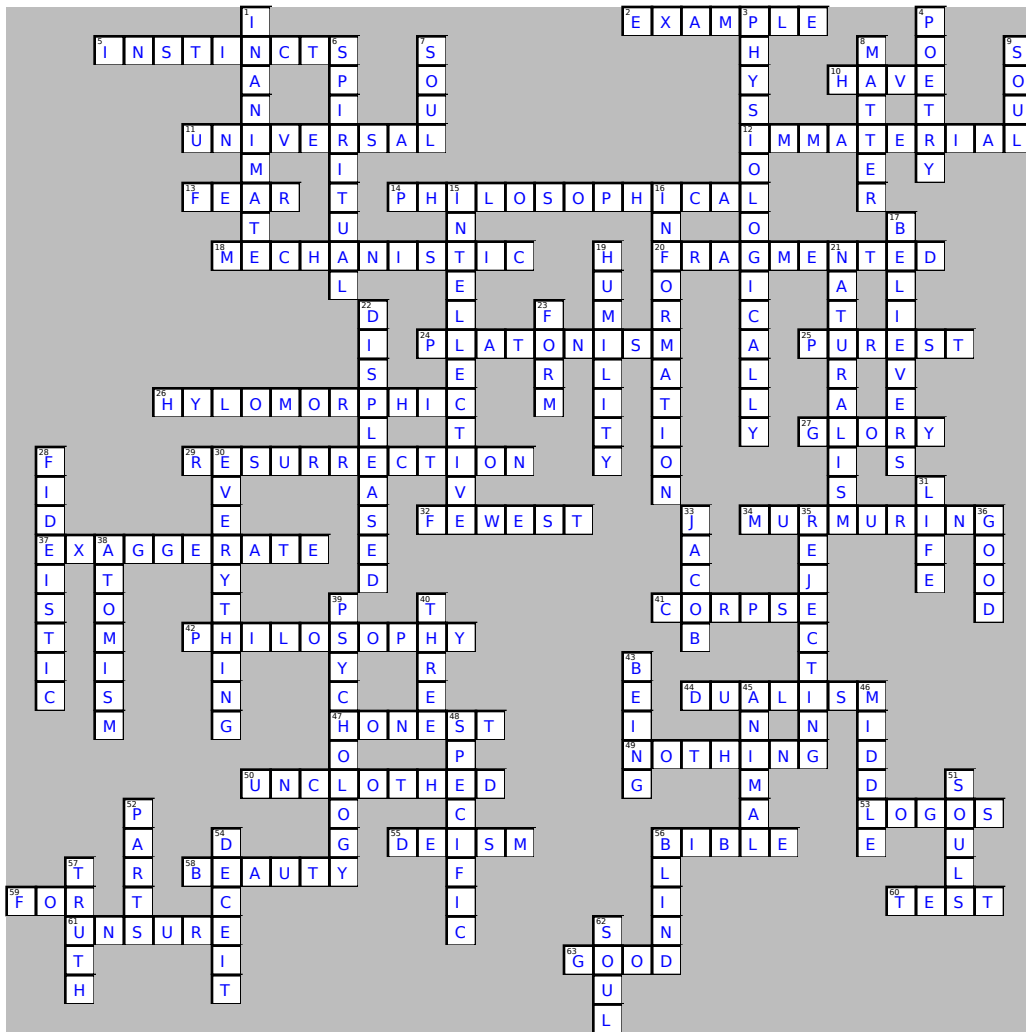

Across

- 2 The failure of the Exodus generation is an illustrative ___ for all of us (1 Cor. 10:11).
- 5 The further one goes down the chain of life the more ___ creatures have.
- 10 Complaining about what we don't have may well result in God taking away what we do ___.
- 11 Animals do not have intellectual souls, they cannot form ___ concepts.
- 12 All one has to do to defeat naturalism is to find one ___ thing in man.
- 13 This is a sign of the breakdown of the spiritual life (Num. 14:9).
- 14 The foundation of science is not science. All science rests on ___ principles.
- 18 Apart from philosophical realism, doctrinal believers can become ___.
- 20 Believers who live deceitful lives live ___ lives.
- 24 Doctrine without philosophical realism tends toward ___.
- 25 Seeing the beauty of God enables the believer to enter into the ___ form of fellowship.
- 26 The correct/biblical view of the nature of man.
- 27 A transcendental concept that refers to beauty (John 1:14).
- 29 Hylomorphism of man explains the need for ___ of the body.
- 32 Of all creatures, human beings have the ___ instincts.
- 34 Do all things without ___ (Philip 2:14, KJV).
- 37 When believers complain they ___ about imaginary goods and hardships (Num. 11:5-6).
- 41 A human body without its animating form is a ___.
- 42 What does the Ph. of Ph. D stand for?
- 44 The view that man has two separate substances (body and soul).
- 47 One of the greatest blessings in life is to have an ___ believer friend.
- 49 The fact that the universe was created out of ___ proves the necessity of God.
- 50 That man is not complete without a body is expressed by Paul saying that "we do not want to be ___" (2 Cor. 5:4).
- 53 The fact that the universe is filled with information points to the ___.
- 55 The view that things can exist without God.
- 56 The final arbiter on any worldview is the ___.
- 58 There is a connection between a human being's capacity for beauty and ability to appreciate the ___ of God.
- 59 Ephesians 5:20 mandates that we are to give thanks ___ all things.
- 60 God keeps certain deceitful believers around to ___ others.
- 61 Though relativism is popular in our age, everyone by nature is an absolutist: even when being absolutely ___ about something.
- 63 It is man's nature to seek good, the problem is that everything in the temporal realm is but a limited ___.

Down

- 1 All of creation can be divided into ___ and animate/living things.
- 3 Although the activity of man's intellectual soul can be measured as it uses the physical brain (e.g., brain waves), in itself it cannot be measured ___ because it is immaterial.
- 4 The O.T. is filled with Hebrew ___, which lost in all English translations.
- 6 The doctrinal movement is the greatest movement in church history as far as teaching ___ techniques.
- 7 ___ is just a word for the life principle in living things.
- 8 "Hylo" means ___.
- 9 "Morphic" means form and refers to man's ___.
- 15 Man is unique among earthly creatures in that he possess an ___ eternal soul.
- 16 Everything that exists is filled with ___ (logos).
- 17 God disciplines ___ who complain (Num 11:1, 20, 1 Cor. 10:6-11).
- 19 ___ is required to learn (James 1:21).
- 21 In ___ (atomism), man has no soul. This is the dominant view among modern scientists.
- 22 When the Israelites complained, it ___ the Lord (Num. 11:1, KJV).
- 23 All living things are composed of ___ and matter.
- 28 Apart from philosophical realism, doctrinal believers will be ___.
- 30 God's will is for all believers to give thanks in ___ (1 Thess. 5:18).
- 31 The souls in animals and man are simply their ___ principles.
- 33 The context of Jesus' statement to Nathaniel's includes a reference to deceitful ___.
- 35 In Bible class, I mentioned the sin of complaining. When believers complain it a sign they are ___ God (Num. 11:20, NASB).
- 36 Only God is the Ultimate ___ which every man truly needs. All other goods will never satisfy his craving for good.
- 38 The view that man is just made of matter, mere atoms.
- 39 Philosophical ___ is another name for philosophy of human nature.
- 40 In Hebrew a line/stich has two or ___ units (distich or tristich).
- 43 All science rests on the ultimate philosophical principle of ___.
- 45 Man shares ___ nature and God's nature (spiritual and rational).
- 46 Ph.D is a holdover from what age?
- 48 The information in instincts is very ___.
- 51 Animals and fish are said to have ___ in Gen. 1:20 (nephesh); Rev. 16:3 (psuche).
- 52 In hylomorphism man is one substance composed of two ___, body and soul.
- 54 It is not true that every believer lies or lives in ___.
- 56 A scientist who does not use philosophical principles must operate on ___ faith.
- 57 In John 1:14 glory/beauty is tied to grace and ___.
- 62 In neo-Platonism the man is his ___, his body is extraneous.

Review of Bible Class (3-10-13)

- Across
- The failure of the Exodus generation is an illustrative ___ for all of us (1 Cor. 10:11).
 - The further one goes down the chain of life the more ___ creatures have.
 - Complaining about what we don't have may well result in God taking away what we do ___.
 - Animals do not have intellectual souls, they cannot form ___ concepts.
 - All one has to do to defeat naturalism is to find one ___ thing in man.
 - This is a sign of the breakdown of the spiritual life (Num. 14:9).
 - The foundation of science is not science. All science rests on ___ principles.
 - Apart from philosophical realism, doctrinal believers can become ___.
 - Believers who live deceitful lives live ___ lives.
 - Doctrine without philosophical realism tends toward ___.
 - Seeing the beauty of God enables the believer to enter into the ___ form of fellowship.
 - The correct/biblical view of the nature of man.
 - A transcendental concept that refers to beauty (John 1:14).
 - Hylomorphism of man explains the need for ___ of the body.
 - Of all creatures, human beings have the ___ instincts.
 - Do all things without ___ (Philip 2:14, KJV).
 - When believers complain they ___ about imaginary goods and hardships (Num. 11:5-6).
 - A human body without its animating form is a ___.
 - What does the Ph. of Ph. D stand for?
 - The view that man has two separate substances (body and soul).
 - One of the greatest blessings in life is to have an ___ believer friend.
 - The fact that the universe was created out of ___ proves the necessity of God.
 - That man is not complete without a body is expressed by Paul saying that "we do not want to be ___" (2 Cor. 5:4).
 - The fact that the universe is filled with information points to the ___.
 - The view that things can exist without God.
 - The final arbiter on any worldview is the ___.
 - There is a connection between a human being's capacity for beauty and ability to appreciate the ___ of God.
 - Ephesians 5:20 mandates that we are to give thanks ___ all things.
 - God keeps certain deceitful believers around to ___ others.
 - Though relativism is popular in our age, everyone by nature is an absolutist: even when being absolutely ___ about something.
 - It is man's nature to seek good, the problem is that everything in the temporal realm is but a limited ___.

- Down
- All of creation can be divided into ___ and animate/living things.
 - Although the activity of man's intellectual soul can be measured as it uses the physical brain (e.g., brain waves), in itself it cannot be measured ___ because it is immaterial.
 - The O.T. is filled with Hebrew ___, which lost in all English translations.
 - The doctrinal movement is the greatest movement in church history as far as teaching ___ techniques.
 - ___ is just a word for the life principle in living things.
 - "Hylō" means ___.
 - "Morphic" means form and refers to man's ___.
 - Man is unique among earthly creatures in that he possess an ___ eternal soul.
 - Everything that exists is filled with ___ (logos).
 - God disciplines ___ who complain (Num 11:1, 20, 1 Cor. 10:6-11).
 - ___ is required to learn (James 1:21).
 - In ___ (atomism), man has no soul. This is the dominant view among modern scientists.
 - When the Israelites complained, it ___ the Lord (Num. 11:1, KJV).
 - All living things are composed of ___ and matter.
 - Apart from philosophical realism, doctrinal believers will be ___.
 - God's will is for all believers to give thanks in ___ (1 Thess. 5:18).
 - The souls in animals and man are simply their ___ principles.
 - The context of Jesus' statement to Nathaniel's includes a reference to deceitful ___.
 - In Bible class, I mentioned the sin of complaining. When believers complain it a sign they are ___ God (Num. 11:20, NASB).
 - Only God is the Ultimate ___ which every man truly needs. All other goods will never satisfy his craving for good.
 - The view that man is just made of matter, mere atoms.
 - Philosophical ___ is another name for philosophy of human nature.
 - In Hebrew a line/stich has two or ___ units (distich or tristich).
 - All science rests on the ultimate philosophical principle of ___.
 - Man shares ___ nature and God's nature (spiritual and rational).
 - Ph.D is a holdover from what age?
 - The information in instincts is very ___.
 - Animals and fish are said to have ___ in Gen. 1:20 (nephesh); Rev. 16:3 (psuche).
 - In hylomorphism man is one substance composed of two ___, body and soul.
 - It is not true that every believer lies or lives in ___.
 - A scientist who does not use philosophical principles must operate on ___ faith.
 - In John 1:14 glory/beauty is tied to grace and ___.
 - In neo-Platonism the man is his ___, his body is extraneous.