

Bible Class 3-17-13 (& misc)

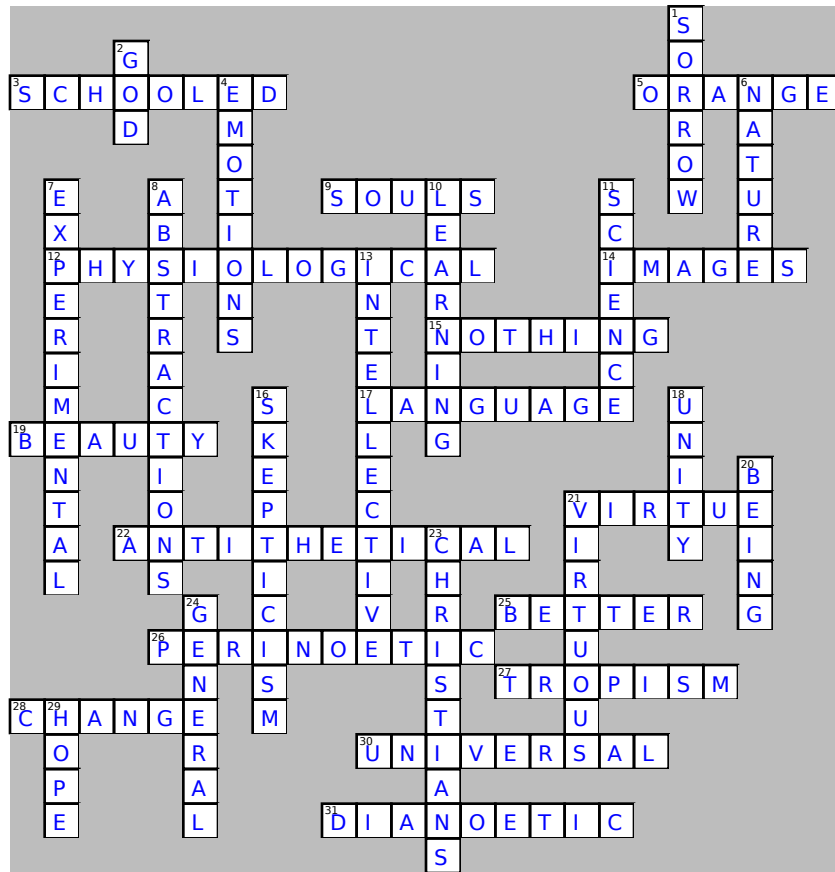

Across

- 3 Even if we do not accept results of Darwinism, we have all been ___ in its naturalistic philosophy.
- 5 Catholic color for St. Patrick's Day is green. What is the Protestant color?
- 9 The influence of naturalism causes us to not see the need for ___ in animals even though the Bible teaches that animals have them, Gen. 1:20.
- 12 Emotions are both psychological (soulish) and ___ (somatic).
- 14 Animals can associate ___ but have no capacity for concepts, which require a "spiritual" soul.
- 15 Proof for the existence of God has ___ to do with whether Darwinism is true or false.
- 17 After decades of research, it was concluded that Nim Chimpsky had no ability for ___.
- 19 Due to materialism, modern man has lost capacity to resonate with God's ___.
- 21 Our intellective abilities are the means of growing in ___ (Prov. 2:1-10).
- 22 What kind of distich communicates doctrine by means of contrast?
- 25 Promoting anti-intellectualism in man is like breaking the wings off of birds and thinking they are now ___ for it.
- 26 What kind of knowledge is just about the description of things?
- 27 The term used for a plant's movement toward sunlight.
- 28 Principles of philosophical realism never ___. They are presupposed by the Word of God.
- 30 Image is singular, a concept is a ___.
- 31 What kind of knowledge goes to the core or essence of something?

Down

- 1 The opposite emotion of joy.
- 2 Whether the earth is 4.6 billion or 6,000 years old has nothing to do with whether ___ exists or not.
- 4 Our intellective abilities are the means of controlling our ___ (Eph. 4:23-32).
- 6 Image is about sensible appearances, concept is about the ___ of a thing.
- 7 A distinction needs to be made between true science (knowledge) and ___ science.
- 8 Concepts are ___.
- 10 In Matthew 11:29, Christ emphasized ___ from/of Him.
- 11 Experimental ___ is always changing.
- 13 Man's uniqueness in creation is in his ___ abilities.
- 16 Believers who accept Darwinism do so not because of evidence but because of their own ___ about the Bible.
- 18 If an animal or plant did not have a "soul," there could be no ___ in being for all of its parts working together for reproduction, nourishment, and striving for existence.
- 20 True philosophy deals with the laws of ___.
- 21 Unless one can control his emotions, he cannot become ___ or have a good souled life.
- 23 The pagan Plato had a higher concept of beauty of "god" than modern ___.
- 24 Virtues deal with ___ character traits rather than some mere momentary trait.
- 29 The opposite emotion of despair.

Bible Class 3-17-13 (& misc)

Across

- 3 Even if we do not accept results of Darwinism, we have all been ___ in its naturalistic philosophy.
- 5 Catholic color for St. Patrick's Day is green. What is the Protestant color?
- 7 The influence of naturalism causes us to not see the need for ___ in animals even though the Bible teaches that animals have them, Gen. 1:20.
- 12 Emotions are both psychological (soulish) and ___ (somatic).
- 14 Animals can associate ___ but have no capacity for concepts, which require a "spiritual" soul.
- 15 Proof for the existence of God has ___ to do with whether Darwinism is true or false.
- 17 After decades of research, it was concluded that Nim Chimpsky had no ability for ___.
- 19 Due to materialism, modern man has lost capacity to resonate with God's ___.
- 21 Our intellective abilities are the means of growing in ___ (Prov. 2:1-10).
- 22 What kind of distich communicates doctrine by means of contrast?
- 25 Promoting anti-intellectualism in man is like breaking the wings off of birds and thinking they are now ___ for it.
- 26 What kind of knowledge is just about the description of things?
- 27 The term used for a plant's movement toward sunlight.
- 28 Principles of philosophical realism never ___. They are presupposed by the Word of God.
- 30 Image is singular, a concept is a ___.
- 31 What kind of knowledge goes to the core or essence of something?

Down

- 1 The opposite emotion of joy.
- 2 Whether the earth is 4.6 billion or 6,000 years old has nothing to do with whether ___ exists or not.
- 4 Our intellective abilities are the means of controlling our ___ (Eph. 4:23-32).
- 6 Image is about sensible appearances, concept is about the ___ of a thing.
- 7 A distinction needs to be made between true science (knowledge) and ___ science.
- 8 Concepts are ___.
- 10 In Matthew 11:29, Christ emphasized ___ from/of Him.
- 11 Experimental ___ is always changing.
- 13 Man's uniqueness in creation is in his ___ abilities.
- 16 Believers who accept Darwinism do so not because of evidence but because of their own ___ about the Bible.
- 18 If an animal or plant did not have a "soul," there could be no ___ in being for all of its parts working together for reproduction, nourishment, and striving for existence.
- 20 True philosophy deals with the laws of ___.
- 21 Unless one can control his emotions, he cannot become ___ or have a good souled life.
- 23 The pagan Plato had a higher concept of beauty of "god" than modern ___.
- 24 Virtues deal with ___ character traits rather than some mere momentary trait.
- 29 The opposite emotion of despair.