

Bible Class Review (5-29-13)

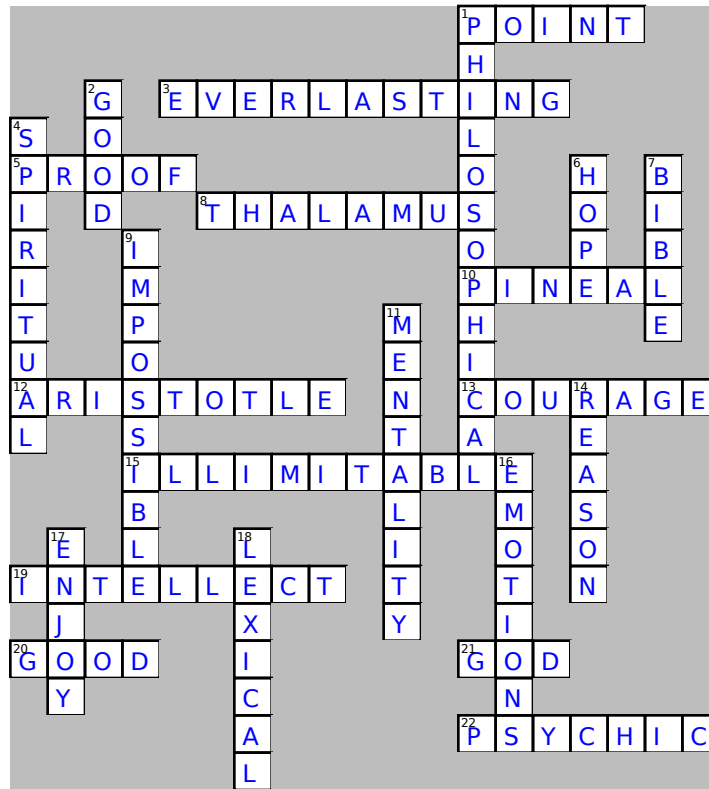

Across

- 1 The original languages/words of Scripture do not possess in themselves ultimate realities. They provide perinoetic (about) knowledge that points to dianoetic (direct) ultimate truths. All any word can do is to reality. Nominalism (reality is based on word definitions) is false.
- 3 The eternality of God is a greater perfection than Him being ___.
- 5 Philosophical realism is all about ___. It is not speculative. Like all science, it examines activity of beings to determine the nature of those beings.
- 8 Prominent doctrinal churches teach that the soul is in the ___. This is not supported in the Bible or in any Hebrew or Greek lexicon on the face of the earth.
- 10 Rene Descartes believed the soul was in the ___ gland.
- 12 The pagan ___ had a more accurate view of the soul than most Christians, including doctrinal believers. He was able to do this through philosophical psychology/realism.
- 13 In Psalm 11:1-2, David's emotions went from fear to ___ while he was in the "difficult to remove" category.
- 15 Eternity is the complete possession all at once of ___ (limitless) life. If you were eternal then all of your life would be equally present to you all at once.
- 19 The will is a property of the ___. This determines what you will love and pursue.
- 20 Since all men seek what they think is good, the greatest issue is truly knowing the ___.
- 21 David's ultimate good was ___ (Psalm 16:2).
- 22 Time is formally ___ (mental) but based on real changes in matter.

Down

- 1 The basic nature of the soul in the Bible and in ___ psychology are the same because both are grounded in reality.
- 2 There is no human freedom from a desire to love and desire ___.
- 4 Believers without a proper foundation often find themselves frantically looking for some new victorious ___ life breakthrough to cure their anemic walk with God.
- 6 In Psalm 13:1-6, David's emotions went from despair to ___ while he was in the "difficult to attain good (=God)" category.
- 7 William of Ockham removed the ___ from the domain of science and philosophy/logic.
- 9 A Bible-only mentality is ___. Everyone brings a philosophy to the Bible.
- 11 Some ICE churches have degenerated into a Word of Faith ___ with illicit word-study theology.
- 14 In classical philosophy there is a synthesis of faith and ___.
- 16 There are II ___. They are related to the lower sense level and higher intellectual level.
- 17 We are designed to ___ God and glorify Him forever (Psa. 16:11).
- 18 Most Christians are platonic in their view of the soul in spite of the clear biblical, philosophical, and ___ evidence.

Bible Class Review (5-29-13)

Across

- 1 The original languages/words of Scripture do not possess in themselves ultimate realities. They provide perinoetic (about) knowledge that points to dianoetic (direct) ultimate truths. All any word can do is to reality. Nominalism (reality is based on word definitions) is false.
- 3 The eternity of God is a greater perfection than Him being ___.
- 5 Philosophical realism is all about ___. It is not speculative. Like all science, it examines activity of beings to determine the nature of those beings.
- 8 Prominent doctrinal churches teach that the soul is in the ___. This is not supported in the Bible or in any Hebrew or Greek lexicon on the face of the earth.
- 10 Rene Descartes believed the soul was in the ___ gland.
- 12 The pagan ___ had a more accurate view of the soul than most Christians, including doctrinal believers. He was able to do this through philosophical psychology/realism.
- 13 In Psalm 11:1-2, David's emotions went from fear to ___ while he was in the "difficult to remove" category.
- 15 Eternity is the complete possession all at once of ___ (limitless) life. If you were eternal then all of your life would be equally present to you all at once.
- 19 The will is a property of the ___. This determines what you will love and pursue.
- 20 Since all men seek what they think is good, the greatest issue is truly knowing the ___.
- 21 David's ultimate good was ___ (Psalm 16:2).
- 22 Time is formally ___ (mental) but based on real changes in matter.

Down

- 1 The basic nature of the soul in the Bible and in ___ psychology are the same because both are grounded in reality.
- 2 There is no human freedom from a desire to love and desire ___.
- 4 Believers without a proper foundation often find themselves frantically looking for some new victorious ___ life breakthrough to cure their anemic walk with God.
- 6 In Psalm 13:1-6, David's emotions went from despair to ___ while he was in the "difficult to attain good (=God)" category.
- 7 William of Ockham removed the ___ from the domain of science and philosophy/logic.
- 9 A Bible-only mentality is ___. Everyone brings a philosophy to the Bible.
- 11 Some ICE churches have degenerated into a Word of Faith ___ with illicit word-study theology.
- 14 In classical philosophy there is a synthesis of faith and ___.
- 16 There are II ___. They are related to the lower sense level and higher intellectual level.
- 17 We are designed to ___ God and glorify Him forever (Psa. 16:11).
- 18 Most Christians are platonic in their view of the soul in spite of the clear biblical, philosophical, and ___ evidence.