Across

- 4 ___ is the purchase of our freedom from the captivity to sin. The price was the death/blood of Christ (1 Pet. 1:18-19).
- 7 The mature believer moves into the exciting world of ___ knowledge. This is the life of wisdom.
- 8 The view of communion that teaches that the body of Christ is somehow underneath or alongside the elements.
- 10 God the Son suffered, but only in the human ___. His divine nature never experienced change or suffering of any kind.
- 12 There is but one divine nature shared among the members of the Trinity. If the divine nature of Christ experienced suffering or death, then so did the divine nature of the Father and the Holy ___.
- 13 A living, thriving, and dynamic ___ with God is the summum bonum of life.
- 14 The view of communion that teaches that the deity of Christ is always present and communion is a memorial designed to remember His unique work of salvation.
- 16 ___ is the forensic/judicial act whereby God declares the believer righteous (Rom. 3:24-28).
- 17 The unleavened bread emphasizes Christ's body and thus the ___.
- 20 In Philippians 3 Paul's intellectual ___ (volition) for Christ is strong and self-motivated under the filling of the HS.
- 21 Apart from the incarnation, there would be no ___ God.
- 23 The evil religious leaders who plotted together to kill Jesus (Matt. 26:4; 27:1) did so because they considered such activity as a ___.
- 25 The cup emphasizes Christ's spiritual ___. Drinking juice of the vine is a demonstration of our identification with His death/blood.
- 26 What we love we will ___ and think about often (cf. Philip. 3:8; Matt. 6:21).
- 27 The 4 pictures of our so great salvation go from the temple (propitiation) to the slave market of sin (redemption) to court (justification) to the ___ (reconciliation).

Down

- 1 ___ life always degrades into religionism.
- 2 Understanding ___ views of communion helps the believer properly define (draw lines of demarcation) the true nature of communion.
- 3 ___ is the removal of alienation from God. It has vertical and horizontal implications.
- 5 Through Bible doctrine the adolescent believer gains a great deal of perinoetic knowledge. However, he continues to have very ___ (reality defined by words) views of God, creation, and man.
- 6 The view of communion that teaches that the actual body of Jesus Christ is in the substance of the elements.
- 9 The material ___ senses determine the intellect's capacity and thus to a great extent a person's I.Q.
- 11 ___ is the removal of the wrath of God that was directed against us as unbelievers (Rom. 3:21-23).
- 15 Demas' intellectual appetite was for the present ___ instead of Jesus Christ (2 Tim. 4:10).
- 18 The deepest metaphysical-theological waters are in the hypostatic union where the 2nd person of the Trinity died in His person in the human nature of Jesus, but did not die or experience any change in His divine ___.
- 19 The view of communion that teaches that the deity of Christ is somehow specially present at celebration of communion as a sacrament.
- 22 In the Trinity God is a one ___ and a three whos.
- 24 Baby believers characteristically seek some spiritual high to fill a rather ___ spiritual life that lacks depth in understanding.
- 25 "My" blood refers to God's blood (Acts 20:28)--but only God's blood/death in the human nature. Christ as God died a human death but only in His person, not in His divine nature. His divine nature never experienced ___. It remains immutable.
