

Bible Class Review (6-5-13)

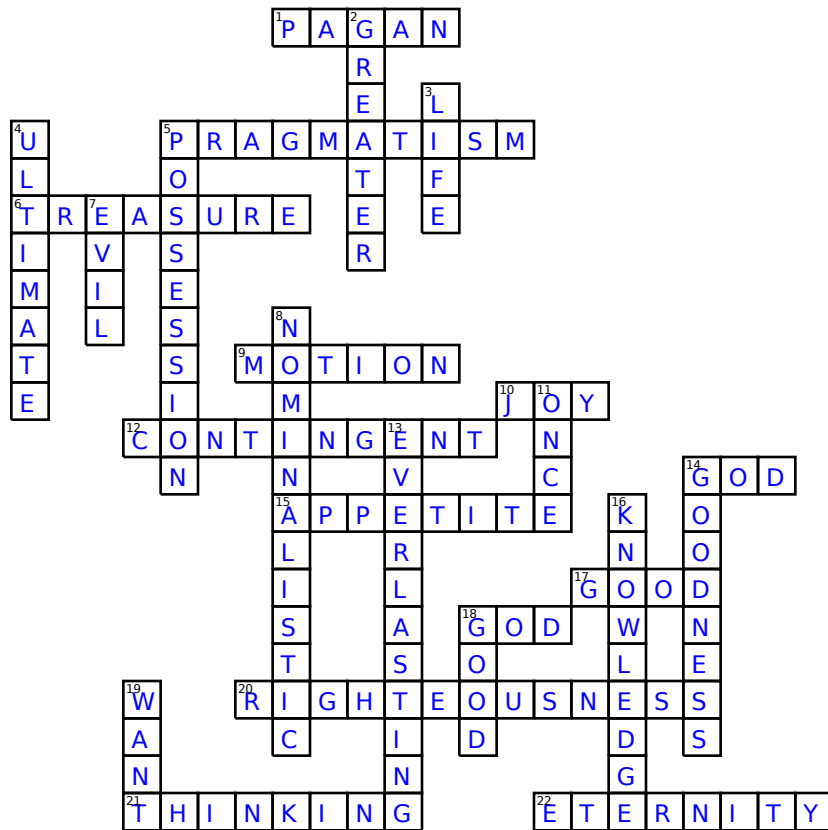

Across

- 1 Most Christians have ___ views of the soul, love, and emotions. Descartes influences them more than Jesus Christ and the Bible.
- 5 Postmodern Christians live in subjectivism and ____. There is no true desire for truth qua truth.
- 6 "for where your ____ is, there your heart will be also" (Matt. 6:21).
- 9 Physical time is a product of the mind measuring real things in ____.
- 10 God brought David fullness of ____ (Psa. 16:11).
- 12 Prayers are ____ means whereby God acts. He knew all of our prayers before we existed.
- 14 The reason people worry so much is because mammon is their ____.
- 15 David's lust for Bathsheba was in his sense appetite, not his intellective ____.
- 17 God was David's Ultimate ____ (Psa. 16:2).
- 18 "You cannot serve ____ and mammon" (Matt. 6:24). One or the other will determine the direction of your life every day.
- 20 Christians are to seek God's kingdom and ____ (Matt. 6:33).
- 21 Apart from gaining the basics of the 5 philosophical foundations, the believer will have to depend on others to his ____ for him.
- 22 When we connect with God, we connect with all of God's ____.

Down

- 2 When David murdered Bathsheba's husband, it was because he saw that as a __ good than God.
- 3 Pagans by nature seek mammon and therefore are consumed by the details of ____ (Matt. 6:32). This should not be the case for Christians.
- 4 David's lust for Bathsheba was a result of no longer seeing God as his ____ Good. He was no longer walking with the Lord.
- 5 God's eternality is the complete ____ all at once of illimitable life.
- 7 +Joy, transcendent happiness, is only possible when one's desires are completely fulfilled and all ____ is removed (cf. Rev. 21:4). This is only possible when God is our Ultimate Good.
- 8 Postmodern Christians are deistic, platonic, and ____.
- 11 God can be more intimate with us than anyone because He has access to all of our lives all at ____.
- 13 An eternal God is much more magnificent than an ____ God.
- 14 Because God was David's Ultimate Good, he was confident that ____ and lovingkindness (chesed) would follow him all of the days of his life (Psa. 23:6).
- 16 When the pastor really teaches, believers become less dependent upon him. Believers who are utterly dependent upon a pastor are not moving into dianoetic ____.
- 18 In reversionism David viewed Bathsheba as his god. He viewed sex with her as a greater ____ than God.
- 19 Because God was David's Ultimate Good, he was able to say "I shall not ____" (Psa. 23:1).

Bible Class Review (6-5-13)

- Across
- Most Christians have ___ views of the soul, love, and emotions. Descartes influences them more than Jesus Christ and the Bible.
 - Postmodern Christians live in subjectivism and ____. There is no true desire for truth qua truth.
 - "for where your _____ is, there your heart will be also" (Matt. 6:21).
 - Physical time is a product of the mind measuring real things in _____.
 - God brought David fullness of ___ (Psa. 16:11).
 - Prayers are ___ means whereby God acts. He knew all of our prayers before we existed.
 - The reason people worry so much is because mammon is their _____.
 - David's lust for Bathsheba was in his sense appetite, not his intellective _____.
 - God was David's Ultimate _____ (Psa. 16:2).
 - "You cannot serve _____ and mammon" (Matt. 6:24). One or the other will determine the direction of your life every day.
 - Christians are to seek God's kingdom and _____ (Matt. 6:33).
 - Apart from gaining the basics of the 5 philosophical foundations, the believer will have to depend on others to his _____ for him.
 - When we connect with God, we connect with all of God's _____.
- Down
- When David murdered Bathsheba's husband, it was because he saw that as a ___ good than God.
 - Pagans by nature seek mammon and therefore are consumed by the details of _____ (Matt. 6:32). This should not be the case for Christians.
 - David's lust for Bathsheba was a result of no longer seeing God as his _____ Good. He was no longer walking with the Lord.
 - God's eternity is the complete _____ all at once of illimitable life.
 - +Joy, transcendent happiness, is only possible when one's desires are completely fulfilled and all _____ is removed (cf. Rev. 21:4). This is only possible when God is our Ultimate Good.
 - Postmodern Christians are deistic, platonic, and _____.
 - God can be more intimate with us than anyone because He has access to all of our lives all at _____.
 - An eternal God is much more magnificent than an _____ God.
 - Because God was David's Ultimate Good, he was confident that _____ and lovingkindness (chesed) would follow him all of the days of his life (Psa. 23:6).
 - When the pastor really teaches, believers become less dependent upon him. Believers who are utterly dependent upon a pastor are not moving into dianoetic _____.
 - In reversionism David viewed Bathsheba as his god. He viewed sex with her as a greater _____ than God.
 - Because God was David's Ultimate Good, he was able to say "I shall not _____" (Psa. 23:1).