Psalm 73:24 – note contextually the nature of spiritual growth. Consider the 2 choices in Col. 3:1-5.

3 Parts to Bible Class: the greatest enemy of Truth (WT, TT) is partial truth, fragmented truth.

Part I: Spiritual foundations: the critical nature of biblical foundations for growth in love for God.

Part II: Philosophical foundations: more on linguistic values vs. the pre-linguistic mental word.

Part III: Doctrinal development: EP: God’s rewards for obedient and sanctions on disobedient.

Part I: Spiritual foundations: What precludes and what brings the wisdom of God.

1. A careful study of 1 Cor. 2:6-3:4 demonstrates that the wisdom of God is not received conduitly or by some magical on/off switch. Rather, the HS reveals in a concurrent manner and the revelation is in area enlightenment and conviction. This has implications for unbeliever & believer, Rm 8:6-8.
2. 1 Cor. 2:6: The wisdom of God that Paul points to can only be gained supernaturally by God the Holy Spirit who directly infuses it in the believer in concurrence and in response to 2nd order will, and prayer. Supernatural wisdom always translates to an inner supernatural conviction (Rom 8:15-16; 1 Thess. 1:5; 1 Jn 2:26-27; 3:24; 4:13), which is impervious to any and all defeaters.
3. We live in a time when the philosophy of the unbeliever is soulless and godless, void of any account of wisdom. However, what is worse is that many of God’s people lack a basic orientation of wisdom, WT, TT. Where are the Christians who are open, eager, and real seekers for the WT, TT-Truth for its own sake no matter what? A lover of truth as such? At FBC!
4. The believer who lives according to the flesh and thus only interested in his favorite passages for pragmatic reasons cannot grow in spiritual wisdom for wisdom by nature is supernatural & unfragmented. Recall that Satan also thought more of God’s gifts than obedience to the Giver.
5. The Bible is unequivocal in teaching that fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom (Job 28:28; Psa 111:10; Prov 1:7; 9:10; 15:33; Isa. 11:2). While there are disparate type fears in the Bible—godly and ungodly—every believer should all ask himself what he fears most: displeasing man, bad health, poverty, or disobeying/displeasing the Lord? Only in wisdom can one get it.
6. Our lives are governed by our loves which have powerful expulsive and virtue creating power.
7. We have been called to be God’s special people (1 Pt. 2:9), designed to grow progressively in virtue for a healthy spiritual life and rich entrance into the next life (2 Pet. 1:3-11).

Prayer & the SL: Fellowship is requisite to loving God and any spiritual virtue. Fellowship is all about walking with, before, and after God. While confession is required (1 Cor. 11:28-30), it is not fellowship.

Analogy.

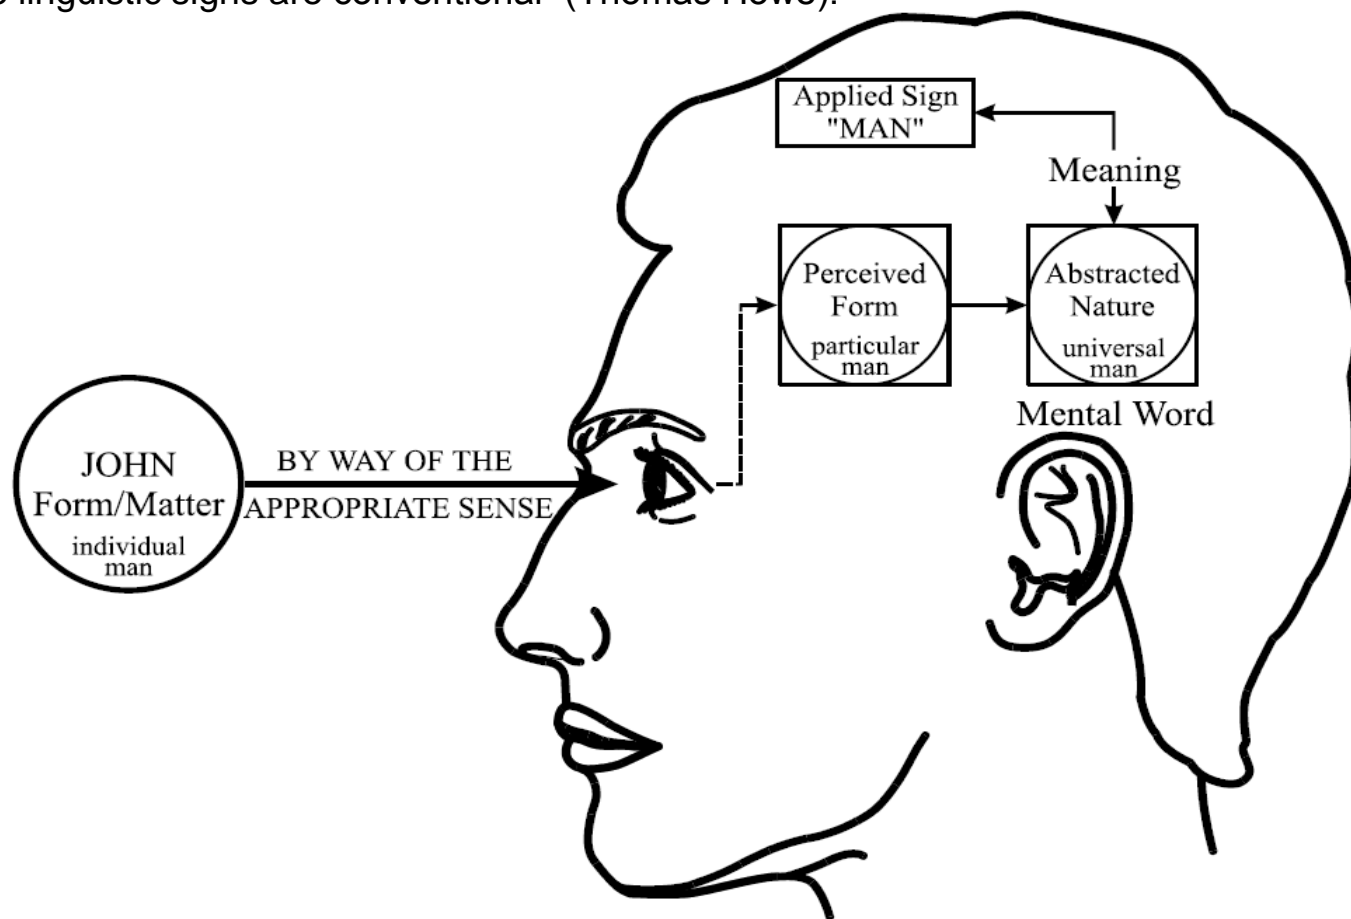

Metaphysical analogy.

1. It is important to know that there are no universal definitions in Greek, Hebrew, or English dictionaries or lexicons. Words in all languages are very plastic, they serve as arrows not as final objects of knowledge. What is more important is the context and the syntactical connectors
2. Just as we need to possess universal definitions of words, we also need universal definitions of the various Bible doctrines and divine truths to develop whole truth and avoid all of the traps of half truths.

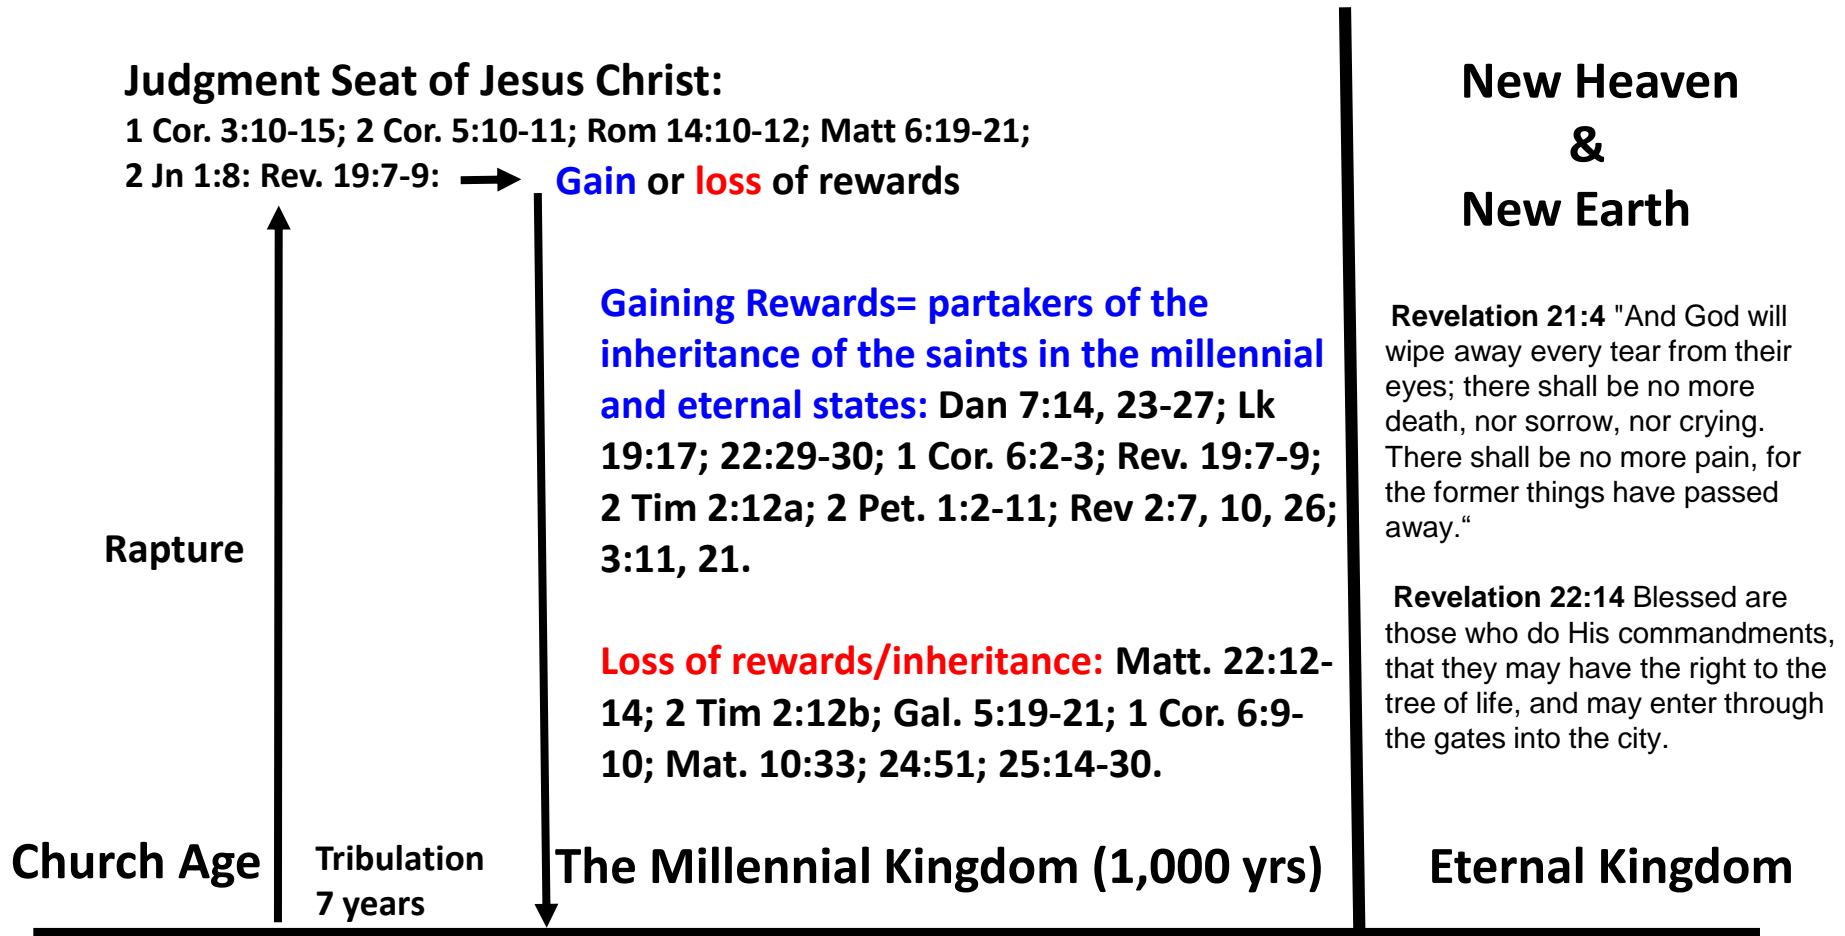

3. Consider the disparate meanings in the following linguistic signs: issue, fear, jealousy, love, man, God, Messiah, lord, angel, salvation. You cannot know the meanings of these words without the form/matter of the phrase/sentence/paragraph no matter how well you may know the original languages, or how many dictionaries you have. This is true of all Greek, Hebrew, and English dictionaries and lexicons. Meaning is derived from the context.
4. Consider the univocal nature of the pre-linguistic mental word as it attempts to find just the right word (linguistic sign). This is your pre-linguistic intellect looking for the right word. Moreover, it is this pre-linguistic striving after good that determines more about volition and attitudes than anything else in our cognition, appetites, and our values.
5. In realism one it is as if one is looking through a window at reality. In all other systems, all one really sees, in terms of meaning, are pictures of linguistic signs. Only in realism is the object of knowledge the thing in reality. All other systems make ideas and linguistic signs the object of knowledge.

6. “Before the linguistic expression is spoken in the mind, the mind has formed a concept, an inward expression of understanding, called the mental word. This mental word is the inward expression of which the linguistic word is the external expression. The first square represents sensible perception. The second square represents intellectual cognition. The abstracted nature is the concept, the content of which is universal man. This concept is expressed in the mind in an act of understanding as the mental word. The linguistic sign “man” is the external expression of that act of understanding. The linguistic expression could be any equivalent external word from any language which carries the same meaning, such as the Greek $\alpha\upsilon\theta\rho\omega\pi\omicron\varsigma$, or the Hebrew ($\psi'יָאָ$). As Aristotle has observed, “the passions of the soul are the same for all men even though the linguistic signs are conventional” (Thomas Howe).

Overview of rewards and inheritance and disinheritance in the Millennium

Part III: Heaven 55 (EP: Negative consequences for believers)

1. The Bible portrays God in very loving, gracious, forgiving, compassionate, and merciful terms. But what about all of those passages addressed to believers where God is depicted in very terrifying, strict, demanding images? (Anyone who regularly reads his Bible is very aware of this.)

Revelation 22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" And let him who hears say, "Come!" And let him who thirsts come. Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely. ¹⁸ For I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book; ¹⁹ and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part from the Book of Life, from the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. ²⁰ He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming quickly." Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus!

Luke 19:26 `For I say to you, that to everyone who has will be given; and from him who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. ²⁷ `But bring here those enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, and slay them before me."

Hebrews 10:30 For we know Him who said, "Vengeance is Mine, I will repay," says the Lord. And again, "The LORD will judge His people." ³¹ It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.

2. There are three incentives in the Bible that God uses to motivate believers to advance in the spiritual life by making God and His Word top priorities. Perhaps the sorry state of Christianity is due, in part, to erroneous and cheap views of grace and rewards. It is not like God stutters when He describes judgment. While the believer will never be condemned for his sins, He does promise a type of judgment/punishment/sanction for certain believers which are carried out in this life, the JSJC, the Millennium, and even the eternal state. The 3 incentives
 - a. #1 – Love for God (Matt. 6:24; 22:36; Eph. 5:10; Gal. 1:10). This is 2nd person love characterized by living with, before, and after God rather than living for self, the world, or others. This is the greatest command.
 - b. #2 – Rewards (which are inextricably connected with love for God), 2 Tim. 4:8. Love for God translates to wanting to please Him, 1 Cor. 9:24-27; Rev. 3:21. The fact that crowns will be laid at His feet (Rev. 4:10) shows the dual aspect of rewards.

- c. #3 – Fear of punishment/being sanctioned.
 - a. Fear of divine punishment in this life (weak, sick, and death), 1 Cor 11:28-30; Acts 5:1-9; Heb. 12:5-12.
 - b. Fear of being judged/sanctioned at the JSJC (shame), 1 John 2:28; 2 Jn 1:8; 2 Cor. 5:9-11; Rom. 14:10-12.
 - c. Fear of being judged/sanctioned during the Millennium (Matt 22:13; 25:30).
 - d. Fear of being judged/sanctioned throughout all eternity (Rev. 22:19).

3. There are four dominant approaches to the judgment/punishment passages.
 - a. #1 –Front-loading the gospel. This approach says a person cannot be saved unless he repents, makes Christ Lord over all of his life, and gives himself totally to God, cf., John McArthur, Gospel according to Jesus).
 - b. #2- Back-loading the gospel. This approach says that if a person is a true believer he will persevere. If he does not he was never saved in the first place. This view is dominant in reformed circles (Calvinists).
 - c. #3 – Mixing the gospel with works. This view says that one is saved by grace and kept saved by faith and works, but one can lose his salvation through sin (Catholics and Arminians). I will have to say that the Arminians are more exegetical than Reformed.
 - d. #4 – Distinguishing salvation/the gospel from loss of rewards. Gospel is by grace alone. Loss of rewards on the part of the disobedient believers is a type of punishment, which will extend through all of eternity, in terms of loss of privileges (like being grounded or on restrictions).

4. Overview of passages that warn believers of terrifying “judgments.” The solution to proper understanding is not in the original languages. God has given us His Word and we all are responsible for all of these passages.

John 15:1 "I am the true vine, and My Father is the vinedresser. ² "Every branch in Me that does not bear fruit He takes away; and every branch that bears fruit He prunes, that it may bear more fruit. ³ "You are already clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. ⁴ "Abide in Me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, neither can you, unless you abide in Me. ⁵ "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who abides in Me, and I in him, bears much fruit; for without Me you can do nothing. ⁶ "If anyone does not abide in Me, he is cast out as a branch and is withered; and they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned.

Galatians 5:2 Indeed I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing. ³ And I testify again to every man who becomes circumcised that he is a debtor to keep the whole law. ⁴ You have become estranged from Christ, you who attempt to be justified by law; you have fallen from grace. ⁵ For we through the Spirit eagerly wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. ⁶ For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision avails anything, but faith working through love. ⁷ You ran well. Who hindered you from obeying the truth? ⁸ This persuasion does not come from Him who calls you. ⁹ A little leaven leavens the whole lump. ¹⁰ I have confidence in you, in the Lord, that you will have no other mind; but he who troubles you shall bear his judgment (τὸ κρίμα), whoever he is.

Colossians 1:21 And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled ²² in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight-- ²³ if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached to every creature under heaven, of which I, Paul, became a minister.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If anyone does not love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. O Lord, come!

Philippians 3:18 For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: ¹⁹ whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame-- who set their mind on earthly things.

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. ¹³ And there is no creature hidden from His sight, but all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account.

Hebrews 12:14 Pursue peace with all people, and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord: ¹⁵ looking carefully lest anyone fall short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up cause trouble, and by this many become defiled; ¹⁶ lest there be any fornicator or profane person like Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright. ¹⁷ For you know that afterward, when he wanted to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it diligently with tears.

Galatians 5:19 Now the works of the flesh are evident, which are: adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lewdness, ²⁰ idolatry, sorcery, hatred, contentions, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, dissensions, heresies, ²¹ envy, murders, drunkenness, revelries, and the like; of which I tell you beforehand, just as I also told you in time past, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Do you not know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Do not be deceived. Neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor homosexuals, nor sodomites, ¹⁰ nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners will inherit the kingdom of God.

Hebrews 10:26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a sacrifice for sins,

2 Corinthians 5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. ¹¹ Knowing, therefore, the terror of the Lord,

Romans 14:10 But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you show contempt for your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. ¹¹ For it is written: "As I live, says the LORD, Every knee shall bow to Me, And every tongue shall confess to God." ¹² So then each of us shall give account of himself to God.

Matthew 18:33 `Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, just as I had pity on you?' ³⁴ "And his master was angry, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him. ³⁵ "So My heavenly Father also will do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses."

Matthew 6:14 "For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. ¹⁵ "But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

Matthew 22:1-13 ... "Then the king said to the servants, `Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.' ¹⁴ "For many are called, but few are chosen."

Matthew 24:45 "Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his master made ruler over his household, to give them food in due season? ⁴⁶ "Blessed is that servant whom his master, when he comes, will find so doing. ⁴⁷ "Assuredly, I say to you that he will make him ruler over all his goods. ⁴⁸ "But if that evil servant says in his heart, 'My master is delaying his coming,' ⁴⁹ "and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, ⁵⁰ "the master of that servant will come on a day when he is not looking for him and at an hour that he is not aware of, ⁵¹ "and will cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Matthew 10:32 "Therefore whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. ³³ "But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven.

1 Peter 1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, ⁴ to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and that does not fade away, reserved in heaven for you, ⁵ who are kept by the power of God through faith for salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

5. Four truths regarding God's judgment of the believer.

- a. #1: All believers are perfectly loved and accepted in Christ forever regardless of what they do or don't do with their lives. This is the grace of God. Every believer is free from condemnation with regard to his sins
- b. #2: Even though the believer is permanently and perfectly loved and accepted by God, God is very demanding regarding the believer's stewardship. There is a punishment in terms of negative consequences of losing rewards. The warnings are explicit regarding a final and eternal accountability for believers' lives.
- c. #3: The believer who keeps walking in the light and advancing in love for God has no need for concern. Even if he experiences some regret, he will receive the final commendation "Well, done," and thus will be filled with joy and gratitude.
- d. #4: As far as wiping every tear, this occurs after the millennium. In eternity there will be no tears, all will be happy, but some cups will be more full than others.

6. Some critical issues regarding the stewardship of our lives.
 - a. We are live as God's people. This must define our lives. We are the people of God and are not to live like unbelievers. It is unfortunate that some "grace movements" flaunt sin in an attempt to be more accepted by the world. We are not to be governed by our animal natures.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of Him who has called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; ¹⁰ for you once were not a people, but now you are the people of God; you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. ¹¹ Beloved, I urge you as aliens and strangers to abstain from fleshly lusts, which wage war against the soul. ¹² Keep your behavior excellent among the Gentiles, so that in the thing in which they slander you as evildoers, they may on account of your good deeds, as they observe them, glorify God in the day of visitation.

b. We are to be serious about rewards.

Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.²⁵ And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.²⁶ Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air.²⁷ But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

- ✓ Passive or active: conduit (Socratic, Cartesian, Reformed) or concurrent?
- ✓ Self-control, contextually, refers to sex and food, see 1 Cor. 6:13, 18.
- ✓ Why is it that an athlete's control of his body is lauded, but if one does it for God, he is mocked? Is Paul to be mocked?
- ✓ Why is Paul so fearful of being disqualified?
- ✓ Note the following chapter.

- c. We are to live to please God, not people. Note the concurrence (no conduit system in sight).

Ephesians 6:5 Bondservants, be obedient to those who are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Christ; ⁶ not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but as bondservants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart, ⁷ with goodwill doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men, ⁸ knowing that whatever good (ἐάν τι ποιήσῃ ἀγαθόν) anyone does, he will receive the same from the Lord, whether he is a slave or free. And you, masters, do the same things to them, giving up threatening, knowing that your own Master also is in heaven, and there is no partiality with Him.

- d. We are to be motivated by the Lord and rewards in everyday life.

Colossians 3:18ff Wives, submit to your own husbands, as is fitting in the Lord. ¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them. ²⁰ Children, obey your parents in all things, for this is well pleasing to the Lord. ²¹ Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged. ²² Bondservants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing God. ²³ And whatever you do, do it heartily (ἐκ ψυχῆς), as to the Lord and not to men, ²⁴ knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Christ. ²⁵ But he who does wrong will be repaid for what he has done, and there is no partiality. Masters, grant to your slaves justice and fairness, knowing that you too have a Master in heaven.

- ✓ The inheritance is consistent with the vast prophecies and promises in the Bible. The inheritance refers to estates on earth. The inheritance that God grants us is on Earth, which will be restored to man from dominion of Satan.
- ✓ Note the warning in verse 25, which is addressed to believers.

- e. We are to look forward to promised rewards for treating our enemies in grace. Also note the virtue, becoming what we are designed to be.

Luke 14:13 "But when you give a feast, invite the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind. ¹⁴ "And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you; for you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the just."

Luke 6:35 "But love your enemies, do good, and lend, hoping for nothing in return; and your reward will be plentiful, and you will become sons of the Most High. For He is kind to the unthankful and evil.

- ✓ Note that three actions are in view of becoming like the Most High in character: loving, doing good, and giving. Unbelievers, by nature are not loving, good, or giving like God.

- f. We are to place treasures in Heaven above our earthly possessions as illustrated by giving to the poor.

Matthew 19:20 The young man said to Him, "All these things I have kept; what am I still lacking?" ²¹ Jesus said to him, "If you wish to be complete, go and sell your possessions and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven; and come, follow Me." ²² But when the young man heard this statement, he went away grieved; for he was one who owned much property.

- ✓ The Catholics are wrong in saying that giving away possession earns Heaven. There were those Christ did not ask to give up possessions (Zacchaeus, Joseph of Arimathea, Ananias)
- ✓ However, they are right with their emphasis on works for virtue, which the Reformers had a real allergy to. They had a right to reject works for salvation but wrong in rejecting them for sanctification—due in part to Augustinian/Platonic ontology.

7. Note the eternal perspective of believers living in the first century regarding earthly possessions and eternal rewards.

Hebrews 10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. ³² But recall the former days in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great struggle with sufferings: ³³ partly while you were made a spectacle both by reproaches and tribulations, and partly while you became companions of those who were so treated; ³⁴ for you had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have a better and an enduring possession for yourselves in heaven.

- There is a play on the words “possession.” Temporal possessions vs. eternal possessions are in view.
- Christians were persecuted, jailed, and had their property confiscated.
- Heb. 13:14, For here we have no continuing city, but we seek the one to come

8. Consider the extent of God's judgment on the believer—it includes our motives.

1 Corinthians 4:5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God.

- The motives of individuals will be revealed.
- However, do not automatically think that enlightened self-interest is a bad thing. It all depends if that interest is in God.
- Note the strong language against judging others' motives, especially other believers with reference to the Christian life. Why do we feel the need to say they are doing things with a false motive because they are not like us?
- The praise will be different and according to the opportunities God provides.

9. Instead of being depressed or angry when we are persecuted, we are to reflect on the great rewards in Heaven.

Luke 6:22 Blessed are you when men hate you, And when they exclude you, And revile you, and cast out your name as evil, For the Son of Man's sake. ²³ Rejoice in that day and leap for joy! For indeed your reward is great in heaven, For in like manner their fathers did to the prophets.

10. Christians who are wealthy are to lay up treasures in Heaven by sharing their possessions with others.

1 Timothy 6:17 Command those who are rich in this present age not to be haughty, nor to trust in uncertain riches but in the living God, who gives us richly all things to enjoy. Let them do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to give, willing to share,¹⁹ storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of eternal life indeed.

- Note the temptations that come with wealth.
- Note the enjoyment of wealth here and the future bestowment of riches in the kingdom, a wealth that is more secure (Mat. 6:19-21).
- Note the emphasis on works again.
- Note the “for themselves” (ἐαυτοῖς).

11. Note the various incentives related to the Kingdom.

Matthew 25:23 "His master said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful slave; you were faithful with a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.'

Luke 19:17 "And he said to him, 'Well done, good slave, because you have been faithful in a very little thing, be in authority over ten cities.'

Revelation 2:26 "And he who overcomes, and keeps My works until the end, to him I will give power over the nations—

Revelation 3:21 "To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

Luke 22:29 and just as My Father has granted Me a kingdom, I grant you ³⁰ that you may eat and drink at My table in My kingdom, and you will sit on thrones judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

12. Consider God's value system revealed in His act of giving rewards.

Matthew 19:29 "And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or children or farms for My name's sake, shall receive many times as much, and shall inherit eternal life.

Matthew 6:3 "But when you do a charitable deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, ⁴ "that your charitable deed may be in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will Himself reward you openly.

Matthew 6:16 "And whenever you fast, do not put on a gloomy face as the hypocrites do, for they neglect their appearance in order to be seen fasting by men. Truly I say to you, they have their reward in full. ¹⁷ "But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face ¹⁸ so that you may not be seen fasting by men, but by your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret will repay you.

2 Corinthians 4:16 Therefore we do not lose heart, but though our outer man is decaying, yet our inner man is being renewed day by day. ¹⁷ For momentary, light affliction is producing for us an eternal weight of glory far beyond all comparison, ¹⁸ while we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen; for the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Revelation 2:7 'He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will grant to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.'

Revelation 2:10 'Do not fear what you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to cast some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.'

13. Consider the various crowns that are offered as rewards.

a. Crown of life for faithfulness in suffering.

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who endures temptation; for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life which the Lord has promised to those who love Him.

Revelation 2:10 "Do not fear any of those things which you are about to suffer. Indeed, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested, and you will have tribulation ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life.

- b. Incorruptible crown for determination, discipline, and victory in the Christian life.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may obtain it.²⁵ And everyone who competes for the prize is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a perishable crown, but we for an imperishable crown.²⁶ Therefore I run thus: not with uncertainty. Thus I fight: not as one who beats the air.²⁷ But I discipline my body and bring it into subjection, lest, when I have preached to others, I myself should become disqualified.

c. Crown of glory for faithful pastors

1 Peter 5:1 The elders who are among you I exhort, I who am a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that will be revealed: ² Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly; ³ nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock; ⁴ and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

- d. Crown of righteousness for progressive sanctification and being ready to meet Christ at His return

2 Timothy 4:6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. ⁸ Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.

14. Consider what Bible says about our attitude toward our crowns.
- a. Our crowns will be laid at Christ's feet, which highlights the fact that they are not just for our recognition, but for God's glory. Our eternal good and God's glory is always tied together.

Revelation 4:10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and worship Him who lives forever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying:

- b. God tells us to guard our crowns.

Revelation 3:11 "Behold, I am coming quickly! Hold fast what you have, that no one may take your crown.

- c. Unlike salvation, rewards can be forfeited that are already in our account.

2 John 1:8 Look to yourselves, that we do not lose those things we worked for, but that we may receive a full reward.

Matthew 25:28 'Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talents.'

15. Some believers will be ashamed of their lives when the Lord returns,

1 John 2:28 And now, little children, abide in Him, so that when He appears, we may have confidence and not shrink away from Him in shame at His coming.

16. While all believers will be happy in Heaven, there will be an eternal differences in glory and happiness as well as in responsibilities and privileges. The vast differences in rewards will be noticeable throughout all of eternity. The differences are all forged in this life

John Bunyan, 'and why should not he who does most for God in this world enjoy most of Him in that which is to come?—because by doing and acting the heart and every faculty of the soul is enlarged and more capacitated whereby more room is made for glory. He that is the most in the bosom of God and that so acts for Him here—He is the man that will best be able to enjoy most of God in the kingdom of heaven.'

17. Note more Scripture on heavenly investments.

Philippians 4:15 And you yourselves also know, Philippians, that at the first preaching of the gospel, after I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone; ¹⁶ for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs. ¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek for the profit which increases to your account.

1 Timothy 6:18 Instruct them to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share, ¹⁹ storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of that which is life indeed.

Luke 12:33-34 "Sell what you have and give alms; provide yourselves money bags which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief approaches nor moth destroys. 34 "For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Mark 10:21, Then Jesus, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack: Go your way, sell whatever you have and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow Me."

18. Note the predicted curse of materialism of our age in which the orientation is to possessions, power, and comfort in this life rather than orienting our hearts to them in the future with Christ.

Revelation 3:15 'I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot; I would that you were cold or hot. ¹⁶ 'So because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will spit you out of My mouth. ¹⁷ 'Because you say, "I am rich, and have become wealthy, and have need of nothing," and you do not know that you are wretched and miserable and poor and blind and naked, ¹⁸ I advise you to buy from Me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich, and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. ¹⁹ 'Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline; be zealous therefore, and repent. ²⁰ 'Behold, I stand at the door and knock; if anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with Me. ²¹ 'He who overcomes, I will grant to him to sit down with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

Jeremiah 2:11 "Has a nation changed gods, When they were not gods? But My people have changed their glory For that which does not profit. ¹² "Be appalled, O heavens, at this, And shudder, be very desolate," declares the LORD. ¹³ "For My people have committed two evils: They have forsaken Me, The fountain of living waters, To hew for themselves cisterns, Broken cisterns, That can hold no water.

Ezekiel 28:4 "By your wisdom and understanding You have acquired riches for yourself, And have acquired gold and silver for your treasuries. ⁵ "By your great wisdom, by your trade You have increased your riches, And your heart is lifted up because of your riches--

Ecclesiastes 2:1 I said to myself, "Come now, I will test you with pleasure. So enjoy yourself." And behold, it too was futility.

Ecclesiastes 2:8-11 Also, I collected for myself silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and provinces. I provided for myself male and female singers and the pleasures of men-- many concubines. ⁹ Then I became great and increased more than all who preceded me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also stood by me. ¹⁰ And all that my eyes desired I did not refuse them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart was pleased because of all my labor and this was my reward for all my labor. Thus I considered all my activities which my hands had done and the labor which I had exerted, and behold all was vanity and striving after wind and there was no profit under the sun.

Ecclesiastes 5:10 He who loves money will not be satisfied with money, nor he who loves abundance with its income. This too is vanity. ¹¹ When good things increase, those who consume them increase. So what is the advantage to their owners except to look on? ¹² The sleep of the working man is pleasant, whether he eats little or much. But the full stomach of the rich man does not allow him to sleep.

Deuteronomy 31:20 "For when I bring them into the land flowing with milk and honey, which I swore to their fathers, and they have eaten and are satisfied and become prosperous, then they will turn to other gods and serve them, and spurn Me and break My covenant.

Hosea 8:14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces; And Judah has multiplied fortified cities, But I will send a fire on its cities that it may consume its palatial dwellings.

Hosea 13:4 Yet I have been the LORD your God Since the land of Egypt; And you were not to know any god except Me, For there is no savior besides Me. ⁵ I cared for you in the wilderness, In the land of drought. ⁶ As they had their pasture, they became satisfied, And being satisfied, their heart became proud; Therefore, they forgot Me.

Psalms 52:7 "Here is the man who did not make God his strength, But trusted in the abundance of his riches, And strengthened himself in his wickedness."

Amos 5:11 Therefore, because you impose heavy rent on the poor And exact a tribute of grain from them, Though you have built houses of well-hewn stone, Yet you will not live in them; You have planted pleasant vineyards, yet you will not drink their wine.

Micah 6:12 For her rich men are full of violence, Her inhabitants have spoken lies, And their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.

Hebrews 13:5 Let your character be free from the love of money, being content with what you have; for He Himself has said, "I will never desert you, nor will I ever forsake you,"

1 Timothy 6:7 For we have brought nothing into the world, so we cannot take anything out of it either. ⁸ And if we have food and covering, with these we shall be content. ⁹ But those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful desires which plunge men into ruin and destruction. ¹⁰ For the love of money is a root of all sorts of evil, and some by longing for it have wandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves with many a pang.

19. Note the great evil and heresy of the health, wealth, and prosperity movement, which emphasizes the pleasure, possessions, and power in this life over the next life. The prosperity gospel is nothing short of a Christianized form of materialism. Note what the Bible says about this life and the next.

Acts 14:22 strengthening the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and saying, "We must through many tribulations enter the kingdom of God."

2 Timothy 3:12 And indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted.

Job 21:7 "Why do the wicked still live, Continue on, also become very powerful? ⁸ "Their descendants are established with them in their sight, And their offspring before their eyes, ⁹ Their houses are safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God on them. ... 13 They spend their days in prosperity, And suddenly they go down to Sheol.

Psalms 94:3 How long shall the wicked, O LORD, How long shall the wicked exult?

Jeremiah 12:1 Righteous art Thou, O LORD, that I would plead my case with Thee; Indeed I would discuss matters of justice with Thee: Why has the way of the wicked prospered? Why are all those who deal in treachery at ease?

Matthew 5:45 in order that you may be sons of your Father who is in heaven; for He causes His sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Luke 15:1 Now all the tax-gatherers and the sinners were coming near Him to listen to Him. ² And both the Pharisees and the scribes began to grumble, saying, "This man receives sinners and eats with them."

John 9:1 And as He passed by, He saw a man blind from birth. ² And His disciples asked Him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?" ³ Jesus answered, "It was neither that this man sinned, nor his parents; but it was in order that the works of God might be displayed in him.

Luke 16:19-15—the rich man and Lazarus.

Luke 6:20-26 And turning His gaze on His disciples, He began to say, "Blessed are you who are poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. ²¹ "Blessed are you who hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, for you shall laugh. ²² "Blessed are you when men hate you, and ostracize you, and cast insults at you, and spurn your name as evil, for the sake of the Son of Man. ²³ "Be glad in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for in the same way their fathers used to treat the prophets. ²⁴ "But woe to you who are rich, for you are receiving your comfort in full. ²⁵ "Woe to you who are well-fed now, for you shall be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep. ²⁶ "Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for in the same way their fathers used to treat the false prophets.

2 Timothy 3:12 And indeed, all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³ But evil men and impostors will proceed from bad to worse, deceiving and being deceived.

Philippians 1:29 For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake,

John 15:18 "If the world hates you, you know that it has hated Me before it hated you. ¹⁹ "If you were of the world, the world would love its own; but because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. ²⁰ "Remember the word that I said to you, 'A slave is not greater than his master.' If they persecuted Me, they will also persecute you; if they kept My word, they will keep yours also.

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is a chosen instrument of Mine, to bear My name before the Gentiles and kings and the sons of Israel; ¹⁶ for I will show him how much he must suffer for My name's sake."

Philippians 3:7 But whatever things were gain to me, those things I have counted as loss for the sake of Christ. ⁸ More than that, I count all things to be loss in view of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them but rubbish in order that I may gain Christ,

2 Corinthians 6:4 but in everything commending ourselves as servants of God, in much endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, ⁵ in beatings, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in sleeplessness, in hunger, ⁶ in purity, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in genuine love, ⁷ in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and the left, ⁸ by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; regarded as deceivers and yet true; ⁹ as unknown yet well-known, as dying yet behold, we live; as punished yet not put to death, ¹⁰ as sorrowful yet always rejoicing, as poor yet making many rich, as having nothing yet possessing all things.

2 Corinthians 12:7 And because of the surpassing greatness of the revelations, for this reason, to keep me from exalting myself, there was given me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me-- to keep me from exalting myself! ⁸ Concerning this I entreated the Lord three times that it might depart from me. ⁹ And He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness." Most gladly, therefore, I will rather boast about my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may dwell in me. ¹⁰ Therefore I am well content with weaknesses, with insults, with distresses, with persecutions, with difficulties, for Christ's sake; for when I am weak, then I am strong.

Luke 12:18 "And he said, 'This is what I will do: I will tear down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. ¹⁹ 'And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years to come; take your ease, eat, drink and be merry.'" ²⁰ "But God said to him, 'You fool! This very night your soul is required of you; and now who will own what you have prepared?' ²¹ "So is the man who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

Matthew 16:26 "For what will a man be profited, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?"

20. Note the curse of materialism on the unsaved.

Matthew 19:24 “Again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 3:7-14 He therefore began saying to the multitudes who were going out to be baptized by him, "You brood of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" ⁸ "Therefore bring forth fruits in keeping with repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father,' for I say to you that God is able from these stones to raise up children to Abraham." ⁹ "And also the axe is already laid at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." ¹⁰ And the multitudes were questioning him, saying, "Then what shall we do?" ¹¹ And he would answer and say to them, "Let the man who has two tunics share with him who has none; and let him who has food do likewise." ¹² And some tax-gatherers also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what shall we do?" ¹³ And he said to them, "Collect no more than what you have been ordered to." ¹⁴ And some soldiers were questioning him, saying, "And what about us, what shall we do?" And he said to them, "Do not take money from anyone by force, or accuse anyone falsely, and be content with your wages."

21. We must never forget that our greatest resource is the spiritual, not physical. Contentment comes from God, not this world or present circumstances.

Philippians 4:10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at last you have revived your concern for me; indeed, you were concerned before, but you lacked opportunity. ¹¹ Not that I speak from want; for I have learned to be content in whatever circumstances I am. ¹² I know how to get along with humble means, and I also know how to live in prosperity; in any and every circumstance I have learned the secret of being filled and going hungry, both of having abundance and suffering need. ¹³ I can do all things through Him who strengthens me. ¹⁴ Nevertheless, you have done well to share with me in my affliction. ¹⁵ And you yourselves also know, Philippians, that at the first preaching of the gospel, after I departed from Macedonia, no church shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you alone; ¹⁶ for even in Thessalonica you sent a gift more than once for my needs. ¹⁷ Not that I seek the gift itself, but I seek for the profit which increases to your account.

James 1:26 If anyone thinks himself to be religious, and yet does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this man's religion is worthless. ²⁷ This is pure and undefiled religion in the sight of our God and Father, to visit orphans and widows in their distress, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

James 5:1 Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries which are coming upon you. ² Your riches have rotted and your garments have become moth-eaten. ³ Your gold and your silver have rusted; and their rust will be a witness against you and will consume your flesh like fire. It is in the last days that you have stored up your treasure! ⁴ Behold, the pay of the laborers who mowed your fields, and which has been withheld by you, cries out against you; and the outcry of those who did the harvesting has reached the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth. ⁵ You have lived luxuriously on the earth and led a life of wanton pleasure; you have fattened your hearts in a day of slaughter.

Mark 12:41 And He sat down opposite the treasury, and began observing how the multitude were putting money into the treasury; and many rich people were putting in large sums. ⁴² And a poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which amount to a cent. ⁴³ And calling His disciples to Him, He said to them, "Truly I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the contributors to the treasury; ⁴⁴ for they all put in out of their surplus, but she, out of her poverty, put in all she owned, all she had to live on.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not know that those who run in a race all run, but only one receives the prize? Run in such a way that you may win. ²⁵ And everyone who competes in the games exercises self-control in all things. They then do it to receive a perishable wreath, but we an imperishable.

2 Timothy 4:6 For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. ⁷ I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; ⁸ in the future there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day; and not only to me, but also to all who have loved His appearing.
